Exclusive Viewing of the Crown

Jewels: Friendly Beefeaters allow you privileged access to the dazzling Crown Jewels, secured in the Tower of London. Pass through the impressive Hall of Monarchs to the Jewel House for a private viewing of this priceless treasure trove, as House Wardens share their wealth of knowledge about the Coronation robes, the Imperial State Crown, and the world's largest cut diamond, the Cullinan I, set in the Sovereign's Sceptre. Afterward, enjoy high tea and a tour of St. Paul's Cathedral, the church where Charles, Prince of Wales, married Lady Diana Spencer.

Pride and Prejudice at Luckington Court

Court: Immerse yourself in the world of Jane Austen as you travel with your driver-guide to Luckington Court, where the BBC production of Pride and Prejudice, was filmed. Your guide leads you on an engaging private tour of the manor house (named "Longbourn Court" in the novel), its extensive gardens, and the captivating church where Lizzie marries Darcy. Enjoy a full English afternoon tea before visiting Lacock, a superbly preserved 13th-century village that served as the location for the town of Meryton in the BBC series.

Ultimate Personal Shopping

Experience: Receive a warm greeting from your personal shopper, who is on hand to show you some of London's best boutiques and shopping areas. Your tailor-made shopping experience includes a full day with a private car and driver and a VIP visit to Net-A-Porter, where you meet some of the most influential buyers in London fashion. You may choose to shop at the Louis Vuitton, Burberry, and Stella McCartney exclusive shopping suites (to name a few), or visit private members' boutiques in Mayfair and Chelsea.
